COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

("Materialise Dental"), a subsidiary of DENTSPLY, by counsel, hereby file this Complaint for a declaratory judgment against Defendant Technique D'Usinage Sinlab, Inc. ("Sinlab"). 6. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Sinlab pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §293.

7. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §293.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

8. DENTSPLY and Materialise Dental are in the business of, among other things, developing, manufacturing and selling dental equipment and materials, including, inter alia, dental prosthetic modeling machines.

9. On or about June 14, 2012, Sinlab, through U.S. counsel, sent a cease and desist notice to DENTSPLY alleging that DENTSPLY was “infringing upon” each of the ‘975, ‘575, ‘786, ‘980 and ‘153 patents “in direct violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271” and informing DENTSPLY that “[t]he purpose of this letter is to demand that you immediately cease and desist in any further activities which infringe upon” those patents.

10. The June 14, 2012 letter further threatened that unless DENTSPLY took action by July 2, 2012 at 5:00 pm, Sinlab had authorized its counsel to “file a lawsuit” against DENTSPLY. A copy of the June 14, 2012 letter is attached as Exhibit 1.

11. On or about July 26, 2012, responding to a request from DENTSPLY’s in-house patent counsel for more information about which DENTSPLY product or products were alleged to be infringed, Sinlab’s counsel again accused DENTSPLY of infringing all of the previously identified patents.

12. The July 26, 2012 letter further stated that “We are proceeding with litigation against all parties who are infringing upon our client's patents.” and stating that “If we do not receive a favorable response by 5:00 p.m. on August 10, 2012 we will be filing suit against Dentsply.” A copy of the July 26, 2012 letter is attached as Exhibit 2.

13. On or about June 14, 2012, Sinlab, through U.S. counsel, also sent a cease and desist notice to Materialise Dental alleging that it was “infringing upon” each of the ‘975, ‘575, ‘786, ‘980 and ‘153 patents “in direct violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271” and informing Materialise Dental that “[t]he purpose of this letter is to demand that you immediately cease and desist in any further activities which infringe upon” those patents.

14. The June 14, 2012 letter further threatened that unless Materialise Dental took action by July 2, 2012, at 5:00 pm, Sinlab had authorized its counsel to “file a lawsuit” against Materialise Dental. A copy of the June 14, 2012 letter is attached as Exhibit 3.

15. Sinlab also announced its intention to take legal action against DENTSPLY, Materialise Dental, and other entities in a June 19, 2012 press release by Capital Pro-Égaux Inc., a company purporting to be Sinlab’s parent company. A copy of that press release is attached as Exhibit 4.

16. As a result of the June 14, 2012 and the July 26, 2012 letters from Sinlab and its June 19, 2012 press release, an actual and justiciable controversy exists between DENTSPLY and Materialise Dental and Sinlab regarding the infringement of the products and systems of DENTSPLY and Materialise Dental and of the validity of the Patents-In-Suit.
